Bruce Thomas - Problem Solver

Jodie Linton-Prickett

When you engage in conversation with the new Main Street Director of Pilot Point, Bruce Thomas, you can feel his enthusiasm and commitment to the city. He has a clear vision of the direction he would like to see the city go and grow....more...

Aubrey Peanut Festival

Each year, on the first Saturday of October the Aubrey Peanut Festival is kicked off with an exciting parade at 10am. This family-friendly event accommodates children with old fashioned games, such as duck pond fishing, a bean bag toss, bounce houses, carnival type trailers and face painting....more...

Kreative Kidz Party

Jennelyn Flannigan

I was so excited. My search was finally over. I had been surfing the net for a while trying to find a place to celebrate my son's 4th birthday. I was having a rough time because everything seemed to be designed for girls. Then I clicked on Kreative Kidz... more...

Prairie House - Frontier Cooking and Catering

< Hands down one of my favorite foods anywhere (not limited to the 380 corridor) comes from the Prairie House located off Highway 380 in Cross Roads, TX. I could write an entire article over my affection for their Bandidos ($7.95 full order). I have tried like items elsewhere and you just can't duplicate perfection. If you like spicy you will love these mouth-watering jalapenos stuffed with jalapeno cheese.... more...

The Legend of Bonnie and Clyde

Bonnie Parker and Clyde Barrow, both born in Texas, met on the east side of Dallas and were among the most famous of criminals during the time of the Great Depression. They captured the imagination of the American press and newspaper readers nationwide... more...
